Event Report

The Association of Food Technologists, Department of Food Technology, HBTU Kanpur, successfully organized an Expert Lecture under the Comprehensive Brain Crafting Hundred Lecture Series for Food Technologists on 12 November 2021 at 03:00 PM, as part of the 100+ years centenary celebrations (1921–2021) of the University. The program aimed to enhance students' understanding of food safety standards and certification systems essential for the modern food industry.

The session was delivered by Mr. Virendra Kumar Sharma, Manager – North, Certification and Training Services, who served as the keynote speaker. In his lecture on “Food Safety System Certification,” he provided in-depth insights into the importance of food safety management systems, certification frameworks, and compliance requirements followed by the food industry. He explained various national and international standards, certification processes, audit mechanisms, and their role in ensuring food quality, consumer safety, and regulatory compliance.

The event was organized under the patronage of Prof. Shamsheer, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, HBTU Kanpur. Prof. Alak Kumar Singh, Head, Department of Food Technology, acted as Chairman, while Dr. Vivek Kumar, Assistant Professor, Department of Food Technology, served as Convenor. Their guidance and coordination contributed to the smooth and successful execution of the program.

More than 45 Students and faculty members actively participated in the lecture and interaction session, gaining practical knowledge about certification procedures, industry expectations, and career opportunities in food safety and quality assurance. The event concluded on a highly informative note, reinforcing the importance of food safety systems, regulatory awareness, and professional competence for aspiring food technologists.
