SDG 10: Reduced Inequalities

(Reduced inequalities within and among countries)

1. Relevance

Harcourt Butler Technical University (HBTU) is committed to bridging educational and opportunity gaps by equipping students from marginalized and underprivileged backgrounds with technical knowledge and skills. The university strives to cultivate an environment of mutual respect, ensuring that individuals from all socioeconomic backgrounds, castes, and communities are valued and empowered, fostering global inclusivity and equity.

2. Policy/Guidelines of the Institute

HBTU is dedicated to creating a secure, inclusive, and equitable environment for all. Its policies include:

- Anti-Ragging Policy: A strict framework to prevent ragging, ensuring a safe and welcoming space for new students, particularly those from vulnerable backgrounds.
- Anti-Discrimination Policy: Measures to prohibit discrimination based on gender, socioeconomic status, disability, ethnicity, or religion, fostering a culture of equality.
- Support for Diverse Communities: The university supports individuals from rural areas, economically challenged backgrounds, diverse gender identities, and varied cultural or religious beliefs, ensuring a holistic and respectful academic ecosystem.

3. Current Interventions

HBTU actively works to promote equality and eliminate bias across its campus by embracing diversity and ensuring every member of the university community has a say in shaping its future. Key initiatives include:

- Villages Adopted by HBTU: The university has adopted nearby rural villages, providing technical support, educational outreach, and community development programs to uplift local populations.
- Scholarships for Economically Weaker Students: Financial aid programs are in place to support students from low-income families, ensuring access to quality education irrespective of economic status.

- Distribution of Kits to Anganwadi Children: HBTU organizes drives to distribute educational and nutritional kits to children in Anganwadi centers, promoting early childhood development in underserved areas.
- Student Engagement in Outreach Activities: Student participation in extracurricular and community outreach programs strengthens ties with society and supports personal development.

4. Future Plans

HBTU aims to expand its global and local impact through:

- Increase MOUs with Universities in Other Countries: Strengthening partnerships with international institutions to facilitate knowledge sharing and collaboration.
- Encourage Student and Faculty Exchange: Launching programs to enable students and faculty to participate in exchange initiatives, both nationally and internationally, to broaden perspectives and opportunities.
- Host Technical Events: Organizing workshops, seminars, and symposiums to promote innovation and inclusivity in education and research.
